J. W. Taylor was in the city for a short time yesterday from Las Cruces, returning home last night.

George H. Browne left last evening for a short business trip through the southern part of the territory.

J. B. Herndon, cashier of the State National bank, returned this morning from a business trip to Silver City.

Clifton Hill, the merchant and postmaster of Isleta, who was here yesterday, returned to Isleta last night.

The Colorado Telephone company yesterday put into commission their Sacoito toll line, which has just been completed.

Clarke's pool room on Railroad avenue, is beginning to take on city airs.

A new linoleum covers the floor and other improvements have been made.

Prof. George W. Ramsey went to Las Vegas this morning to sell Underwood typewriters, for which machine he is general agent in New Mexico.

Colonel W. S. Hopewell went to Santa Fe this morning on business pertaining to the Albuquerque Eastern railway, of which he is general manager.

The regular dance of the Commercial club at their rooms last evening proved to be a rather quiet affair, but those present, although small in number, thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

John A. Logan Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet in regular session tomorrow, (Friday) afternoon, April 6, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. B. Coleman, 509 South Arno street.

Eta B. Allison, secretary.

The new Marron building on West Railroad avenue will soon be completed. The front of the building has been finished and the interior work is being pushed to completion rapidly.

Regular Sabbath services at Temple Albert Friday evening at 7:45. Philip Monheit will be confirmed at this service. "His the Passover Still a Messenger for Us" will be the subject of Rabbi Kaplan's sermon. Everybody is welcome.

Miss Lou Hughes has gone to Santa Fe to visit her sister, Mrs. O. C. Watson. On her return to this city, Miss Hughes, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Hughes, will leave for southern California, where they will remain during the summer months.

Only two victims were before Police Judge Crawford this morning, when the police court convened. Both were charged with being intoxicated, and as there was no denying the fact, both pleaded guilty, and went to the chain gang for five days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Trauer returned this morning from Los Lunas, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Simon. Recently returned from his sheep ranges, and he reports his flocks in fine condition and plenty of good grass and water.

The officers of the local socialist organization are in receipt of a dispatch from Carl D. Thompson, now in Milwaukee, Wis., to the effect that in the municipal election held there the socialists elected twelve aldermen out of the forty-five, as well as six supervisors and two justices.

Will Williamson and Miss Edith Jenne have announced their engagement. Mr. Williamson is an industrious young carpenter and the bride-to-be is the youngest daughter of Mrs. W. H. Jenne, of 412 South Third street. The marriage will take place on Thursday evening, April 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Seichler, residing at the corner of Seventh street and Fruit avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival this morning at their home of a daughter, and the attending physician states that the little lady weighs about eleven pounds. Mr. Seichler is an employee of the Southwestern Brewery and Ice company.

Mrs. A. Monheit, who has been quite ill at St. Joseph's hospital, for some time past, has sufficiently recovered to allow of traveling, and will leave tonight for Oklahoma City, Okla. Mrs. Monheit extends her thanks and gratitude to Rabbi Jacob H. Kaplan and the Associated Charities organization, who assisted her financially during her illness.

In the vote of the First ward on the candidates for mayor, as published in yesterday's Citizen, an error appears in the vote for Rock, the socialist candidate for mayor. In this ward, instead of 20, Mr. Rock received 24 votes. This is the only error, as far as The Citizen representative was able to secure the returns, appearing in the report as published in this paper yesterday afternoon.

Work on the new Korber building, on Second street, between Tijeras and Copper avenues, is fast nearing completion. The third story of the building is now being finished up, and the work of finishing the interior will be rushed forward at once. The front of the building is of stone, the walls at the sides and rear being of brick, and it makes one of the most substantial looking buildings in that portion of the city.

That Joshua S. Reynolds intends to make his permanent home in Albuquerque is more evident than ever. Yesterday A. J. Hamilton secured a contract to build a new residence for Mr. Reynolds at the corner of Silver avenue and High street. The building is to be of the old mission style on plans drawn by the firm of Spencer & Wallingford, architects.

A view of the new Reynolds home has been placed on exhibition in the window of O. A. Matson & Co.

Colonel James McCarriston, the cement king, was strongly urged by a number of his friends to allow his name to be placed on the city ticket for alderman from his ward. They argued with him, and correctly too, that he already possessed aldermanic proportions, thus avoiding the necessity of expansion to fill the office.

While, whenever it should be necessary, like Secretary Taft, he could sit on the lid and so hold everything down. But the colonel would not listen to the voice of the charms, charm they ever so wisely.

A. B. Bement, of Terre Haute, Ind., president of the Southwestern Lead and Zinc company, which owns properties in the Caballo mountains, in the southern portion of the territory, is in the city for a few days, returning from a visit to the properties. Speaking of the work of development being done at the properties, Mr. Bement stated that a large reduction plant and smelter had been erected there, and that they would be ready for operation in a few days. Max B. Fitch of Socorro, is the manager of the company.

To Men's-Clothes Wearers

YOU ARE OFFERED DAILY ALL KINDS OF CLOTHES TO WEAR; SOME GOOD, SOME BAD, SOME DISHONEST.

THE DISHONEST CLOTHES ARE THOSE MADE OF FABRICS ADULTERATED WITH "MERCERIZED COTTON;" MADE TO LOOK LIKE ALL-WOOL AND SURE TO WEAR LIKE PART COTTON.

THE DISHONESTY IS IN THE LOOKS THAT DECEIVE YOU; NOT IN THE FABRIC, OR IN THE DEALER. THERE'S NOTHING DISHONEST IN A "MERCERIZED COTTON" FABRIC IF YOU KNOW WHAT IT IS; SOME PEOPLE DON'T KNOW.

THE TOWN IS FULL OF THIS STUFF—CLOTHES THAT CHEAT; THEY LOOK HONEST AND THEY COST HONEST; BUT THERE'S A FRAUD; AND YOU'LL FIND IT WHEN YOU WEAR THEM.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX STAND FOR ALL-WOOL, AND NO "MERCERIZED COTTON;" IF YOU FIND THEIR LABEL THAT'S WHAT YOU GET.
